VIA ANGELO MASINA, 5 - (PORTA S. PANCRAZIO) - 00153 ROME

30 September

Dear Giuliano,

Help! If you and Stefania can ever forgive your tired old friends, Carol and I would love to see you and, finally, Guido too. But how and when can one reach you? Since we moved to the Hibbard's apartment on Sept. 20, I have been trying to reach you almost every day. With NO success. The telephone is always busy --at least when I am buried in the Archivio del Vicariato.

At the moment, having tried all afternoon, I must revert to the old-fashioned note in the hope of getting through to you. When is a good time to call? A special number? We are at 580.783. Please do forgive us, ie me, and please do call or write me when I can call you.

With apologies, affection, and hope,

Milton
